

Adventures in Learning

Did you notice how excited first graders are to attend school? How they take great pride in their new notebooks? How they make certain that their pencils are sharpened to perfection? How particular they are about their back-packs, their clothes, and how anxious they are to arrive at school on time?

What happened to all that excitement? Why don't they want to do any school-work now, or even go to school? Where did all that excitement go, and what immediate actions should you take to rekindle it?
