

You're In Control With Home School

You are guided at every step

"I am very excited about the help I received with my daughter's homeschool program at Applied Scholastics Online Academy. Earlier we had gotten to a point where she was no longer willing to read from her book. I tried many different things with her, but she would not budge and I had no idea what to do next.

"It was then that I had a long talk with Martha at APS Online. She was extremely helpful and gave me simple solutions that I could do and it was so easy!! And, it worked!!

“It was awesome to not only have someone to talk to, but to have someone who had a wealth of personal experience teaching children. Martha’s confidence and experience was exactly what I needed to get my daughter back on track with her studies. Thank you Applied Scholastics Online Academy!!” P.W.

Students can graduate in much less time than in conventional schools

“It was a pleasure to complete high school at Applied Scholastics Online Academy. . . . the service is excellent . . . the staff helps in every possible way . . . the instruction is spot on and fast . . . I am well prepared for the university.” J.S.

Students can acquire the passion Universities look for in higher education

“Homeschooled students... have consciously chosen and pursued an independent course of study. . . . The distinguishing factor is intellectual vitality. These kids have it, and everything they do is responding to it.” Jonathan Reider, PhD, senior associate director of undergraduate admissions at Stanford University; Stanford Magazine
